

To Whom it May Concern:

You are on record as having requested notice of any petition for a declaratory ruling received by the State Elections Enforcement Commission, or have been ordered by the Commission to receive notice based on past inquiries or have submitted comments regarding this Declaratory Ruling.

In April, the State Elections Enforcement Commission received a request for a Declaratory Ruling tentatively titled Proposed Declaratory Ruling 2018-01: Political Activity of Organized Groups. A draft of the proposed ruling was issued for comment at the Commission's May 16, 2018 meeting.

<http://seec.ct.gov/Portal/rulings/RulingsOpinions>

Comments were received through June 13, 2018.

Notice is hereby given that, at its June 20, 2018 meeting, the Commission passed the following resolution setting forth further proceedings:

To extend the comment period on the proposed Declaratory Ruling and additional issues raised in comments already submitted; and order that notice be posted on the SEEC website; and notice be sent to all persons who were sent notice of the receipt of the petition; and notice be sent to all persons who submitted comments; and that this additional comment period shall close at 5:00 p.m. on July 6, 2018.

A brief opportunity to be heard and to answer questions will be provided for the public at a special session of the Commission to be scheduled by staff in July, at a date to be determined. Commission staff is ordered to provide notice of such special session in the same manner as described above.

If you wish to be removed from the notice list, please send an email to seec.compliance@ct.gov with the subject heading "remove from declaratory ruling notice list." If your contact information changes, it is your responsibility to notify SEEC staff of such change, by sending an email to seec.compliance@ct.gov with the subject heading "amendment to contact information for declaratory ruling notice list." If you would like to request a generic notification to the agency or entity with which you are associated, please provide a generic email address by sending an email to seec.compliance@ct.gov with the subject heading "addition of email to declaratory ruling notice list."