

Name of Committee

This agreement represents the committee worker or consultant's responsibilities to the campaign. This document constitutes the entire agreement and is limited to the terms and duties described herein. If there are any changes to the terms, duties, or wages under this agreement such changes will be memorialized in writing before taking effect.

The committee worker or consultant will provide all additional contemporaneous records and invoices needed by the treasurer to fill out the required campaign finance disclosure forms.

If the committee worker or consultant incurs expenditures or makes payments to any secondary payees on behalf of the campaign (included but not limited to any subcontractors, third-party workers or service providers, printers, media buys, etc.), the committee worker or consultant will provide the treasurer with any and all information required for the treasurer to comply with the campaign finance disclosure requirements, including the full name and complete address of each such secondary payee, as well as the amount paid and purpose of each payment.
