

STATE OF CONNECTICUT
STATE ELECTIONS ENFORCEMENT COMMISSION

In the Matter of a Referral by the Greenwich Registrars of Voters

File No. 2017-029

AGREEMENT CONTAINING A CONSENT ORDER

The parties, Maria E. Skinner (the "Respondent") and the undersigned authorized representative of the State Elections Enforcement Commission (the "Commission"), enter into this agreement as authorized by Connecticut General Statutes § 4-177 (c) and Regulations of Connecticut State Agencies § 9-7b-54. In accordance with those provisions, the parties agree that:

ALLEGATIONS

1. The Referring Official alleged the Respondent voted in the town of Greenwich, Connecticut when she was not a bona fide resident of that town.

LAW

2. An elector is eligible to register and vote in a particular town only if such voter is a bona fide resident of such town. General Statutes § 9-12, provides in pertinent part:

(a) Each citizen of the United States who has attained the age of eighteen years, and who is a bona fide resident of the town to which the citizen applies for admission as an elector shall, on approval by the registrars of voters or town clerk of the town of residence of such citizen, as prescribed by law, be an elector, except as provided in subsection (b) of this section[.]

(Emphasis added).

3. General Statutes § 9-172 further details the eligibility requirements for voting in a state election.

At any regular or special state election any person may vote who was registered on the last-completed revised registry list of the town in which he offers to vote, and he shall vote in the district in which he was so registered; provided those persons may vote whose names are restored to the list under the provisions of section 9-42 or whose names are added on the last weekday before a regular election under the provisions of section 9-17. Each person so registered shall be permitted to vote if he is a bona fide resident of the town and political subdivision holding the election and has not lost his right by conviction of a disfranchising crime. Any person offering so to vote and being challenged as to his identity or residence shall, before he votes, prove his identity with the person on whose name he offers to vote or his bona fide residence in the town and political subdivision holding the election, as the case may be, by the testimony, under oath, of at least one other elector or by such other evidence as is acceptable to the moderator.

4. Any person who votes in any election when not qualified to do so, faces both civil and criminal liability. General Statutes § 9-7b, provides in pertinent part:

(a) The State Elections Enforcement Commission shall have the following duties and powers: (2) To levy a civil penalty not to exceed. . . (C) two thousand dollars per offense against any person the commission finds to have (i) improperly voted in any election, primary or referendum, and (ii) not been legally qualified to vote in such election, primary or referendum,

5. General Statutes § 9-360, further provides, in pertinent part:

Any person not legally qualified who fraudulently votes in any town meeting, primary, election or referendum in which the person is not qualified to vote, and any legally qualified person who, at such meeting, primary, election or referendum, fraudulently votes more than once at the same meeting, primary, election or referendum, shall be fined not less than three hundred dollars or more than five hundred dollars and shall be imprisoned not less than one year or more than two years and shall be disfranchised. Any person who votes or attempts to vote at any election, primary, referendum or town meeting by assuming the name of another legally qualified person shall be guilty of a class D felony and shall be disfranchised

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

6. The facts in this matter are uncontested. In September of 2012, the Respondent registered to vote in Greenwich, listing her parent's house, 77 Maple Avenue, Greenwich, Connecticut, as her residence.
7. In August of 2014, the Respondent's parents moved to Georgia. The Respondent was attending college in Dallas, Texas at the time.
8. In March of 2015 the Registrars of Voters placed the Respondent on the inactive voter list because they received an unsigned response to a canvas indicating that the Respondent had moved to Georgia. The Respondent claims that the canvas response was completed by her mother.
9. In December of 2015, the Respondent's parents moved back to Greenwich (14 Pecksland Road).
10. In January of 2016, the Respondent moved to an apartment in New York City (140 Seventh Avenue, Apt. 2R, New York, NY).

11. On November 8, 2016, the Respondent presented herself at the Greenwich polling location associated with 77 Maple Avenue, Greenwich, Connecticut. It should be noted that this polling location is also the polling location for 14 Pecksland Road, Greenwich, Connecticut.
12. Despite the Respondent's presence on the inactive voter list, the poll workers did not request that the Respondent complete a new voter registration, but allowed the Respondent to vote.
13. The investigation shows that the Respondent's vote in Greenwich was the only vote she cast on November 8, 2016.
14. According to the Commission, an individual's bona fide residence is the place where that individual maintains a true, fixed, and principal home to which he or she, whenever transiently located, has a genuine intent to return. See, e.g., Complaint of Cicero Booker, Waterbury, File No. 2007-157. In other words, "bona fide residence" is generally synonymous with domicile. Id.; cf. Hackett v. City of New Haven, 103 Conn. 157 (1925). The Commission has concluded, however, that "[t]he traditional rigid notion of 'domicile' has . . . given way somewhat but only to the extent that it has become an impractical standard for the purposes of determining voting residence (i.e., with respect to college students, the homeless, and individuals with multiple dwellings)." (Emphasis added.) Complaint of James Cropsey, Tilton, New Hampshire, File No. 2008-047. See also, Wit v. Berman, 306 F.3d 1256, 1262 (2d Cir. 2002) (stating that under certain circumstances domicile rule for voting residency can create administrative difficulties that might lead to its pragmatic application in New York); Sims v. Vernon, Superior Court, New London County, No. 41032 (Oct. 4, 1972) (considering issue of voter residency with respect to college students and stating that "a student, and a nonstudent as well, who satisfies the . . . residence requirement, may vote where he resides, without regard to the duration of his anticipated stay or the existence of another residence elsewhere. It is for him alone to say whether his voting interests at the residence he selects exceed his voting interests elsewhere.") (Emphasis added).
15. The Commission has further held that, where an individual truly maintains two residences to which the individual has legitimate, significant, and continuing attachments, that individual can choose either one of those residences to be their bona fide residence for the purposes of election law so long as they possess the requisite intent. In the Matter of a Complaint by James Cropsey, Tilton, New Hampshire, File No. 2008-047. See also Wit, 306 F.3d at 1262 (quoting People v. O'Hara, 96 N.Y.2d 378, 385 (2001)).
16. Moreover, if an individual has established residency at a location, "only the Respondent's abandonment of the residence . . . will extinguish [his or] her right as an elector in that town.” Complaint of Carole Dmytryshak, Salisbury, File No. 2012-197. See also, Gold v. Gold, 100 Conn. 607 (Conn. 1924) (holding that for personal jurisdiction purposes “the essentials upon which the conclusion of a change of domicile must rest are an intention to abandon the old domicile and to acquire a new one in another place where a residence has been established”) (citing Roxbury v. Bridgewater, 85 Conn. 196; Hoskins v. Matthews, 57 Eng. Ch. 12); Maksym v. Board of Education Com’rs of City of Chicago, Illinois Supreme Court, Docket No. 111773 (Jan. 27, 2011), 2011 WL 242421 at *8 (“[O]nce residency is established, the test is no longer physical presence but rather abandonment. Indeed, once a person has established residence, he or she can be physically absent from that residence for months or even years without having abandoned it. . . .”).

17. In this case, it is undisputed that the 77 Maple Avenue address had been abandoned. While here parents did move back to the same voting district, she, at that time, moved to New York. Thus, she never established residency at 77 Maple Avenue.
18. Accordingly, when the Respondent voted in Greenwich in the November 8, 2016 election, she was not a bona fide resident of that town.

TERMS OF GENERAL APPLICATION

19. The Respondent admits to all jurisdictional facts and agrees that this Agreement and Order shall have the same force and effect as a final decision and order entered into after a full hearing and shall become final when adopted by the Commission.
20. The Respondent waives:
 - a. Any further procedural steps;
 - b. The requirement that the Commission’s decision contain a statement of findings of fact and conclusions of law, separately stated; and
 - c. All rights to seek judicial review or otherwise to challenge or to contest the validity of the Order entered into pursuant to this Agreement.
21. Upon the Respondent’s agreement to comply with the Order hereinafter stated, the Commission shall not initiate any further proceedings against the Respondents regarding this matter.
22. It is understood and agreed by the parties to this Agreement that the Commission will consider this Agreement at its next available meeting and, if the Commission rejects it, the Agreement will be withdrawn and may not be used as an admission by the Parties in any subsequent hearing, proceeding or forum.

ORDER

It is hereby ordered that the Respondent shall henceforth strictly adhere to the requirements of General Statutes §§ 9-7b, 9-12 and 9-172.

The Respondent:

By:
Maria E. Skinner
140 Seventh Avenue, Apt. 2R,
New York, NY 10011

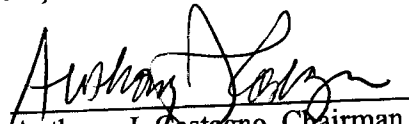

For the State of Connecticut:

By:
Michael J. Brandi
Executive Director and General Counsel and Authorized Representative of the
State Elections Enforcement Commission
20 Trinity St.
Hartford, CT 06106

Dated: 8/30/17

Dated: 8/30/17

Adopted this 30 day of August, 2017 at Hartford, Connecticut by vote of the Commission.

Anthony J. Castagno, Chairman
By Order of the Commission