MINUTES
STATE ELECTIONS ENFORCEMENT COMMISSION

II. Approval of the Minutes

III. Administrative Reports

Executive Director Michael Brandi provided the Commission with several brief updates. The 2022 regular legislative session recently concluded. While the bills that the agency proposed were favorably reported out of the GAE committee, they regrettably died on the floor. We look forward to reintroducing these bills next year during the long session.

The agency budget remains on target. This was a budget adjustment year and the agency was flat funded and had no changes. We may have a small surplus due to staff retirements, but we will continue to monitor.

CEP season is underway. Weekly commission meetings will start the week of May 23. Based upon past cycles, we expect a large volume of applications in the weeks and months ahead. We had 59 PARs this spring, of which 41 were prequalified. Those that did not prequalify, they have been given guidance on next steps.

We are also trying to fill several vacant positions due to retirements. We are working with DAS on posting several positions.
