III. Administrative Reports

Director Brandi provided commissioners with a few brief updates. The agency's current fiscal year budget remains on target. Staff projects that the agency will likely remit a surplus to the state's General Fund.

Director Brandi advised that last week, staff submitted the agency's legislative proposals to the General Assembly. Staff continue to monitor the work of the relevant legislative committees and review proposed bills as well.

Director Brandi updated that SEEC staff was recently contacted by the ACLU of Connecticut regarding the recently proposed Voter Rights Act, which will likely get a public hearing before GAE.

With respect to personnel, SEEC staff are awaiting the final lists from DAS for the staff attorney and IT manager positions, with the hope that we can conduct interviews in the near future.
