STATE ELECTIONS ENFORCEMENT COMMISSION ANNOUNCES FOURTEENTH PUBLIC GRANTS OF SEASON

HARTFORD, CT – August 20, 2014 – The State Elections Enforcement Commission (the “Commission”) announced that it will make its fourteenth public grant payments under the Citizens’ Election Program (“CEP”) for the November 4, 2014 general election. The Commission determined that state representative candidates Frank Apuzzo Jr. (R – 85th District), Theresa Conroy (D – 105th District), Paul Davis (D – 117th District), Louis Esposito (D – 116th District), Patricia Billie Miller (D – 145th District), Mimi Perrotti (D – 34th District), David Rutigliano (R – 123rd District), and Daniel Santorso (D – 78th District) were eligible to receive Program grants.

The CEP is a voluntary program which allows qualifying candidates for General Assembly and statewide offices to receive full public financing. To qualify for public campaign financing, candidates must demonstrate they have adequate support from the public. Candidates for state representative accomplish this by raising $5,000 from at least 150 individuals residing in municipalities in their districts. Candidates for state senate accomplish this by raising $15,000 from at least 300 individuals residing in municipalities in their districts. Participating candidates may only accept small dollar contributions from certain individuals—the maximum contribution is $100—and no contributions from state contractors or PACs.

Grant amounts vary. Typically, general election grant amounts are $27,850 for state representative candidates and $94,690 for state senate candidates.

The CEP was designed, in part, to reduce the influence of special interests in state politics. In its fourth full cycle of providing public funding to General Assembly candidates, the CEP continues to provide a seawall against the rising tide of special interest money in today’s elections.
