

PRESS RELEASE

STATE ELECTIONS ENFORCEMENT COMMISSION ANNOUNCES FOURTH GRANTS OF SEASON

HARTFORD, CT – The State Elections Enforcement Commission (the “Commission”) voted at its June 15, 2022 regular meeting to approve public grant payments under the Citizens’ Election Program (“CEP”) for candidates in the November 8, 2022 regular election.

The Commission determined that state representative candidates Marcus Brown (D – 127th District), Robert Hendrickson (R – 58th District), Dominique Johnson (D – 143rd District), Jennifer Leeper (D – 132nd District), Heather Maguire (R – 17th District), Donna Meier (R – 13th District), David Michel (D – 146th District), Ronald Napoli, Jr. (D – 73rd District), Tammy Nuccio (R – 53rd District), Christine Palm (D – 36th District), John-Michael Parker (D – 101st District), Jason Rojas (D – 9th District), David Stavens (R – 57th District), Lenworth Walker (R – 60th District), Cristin McCarthy Vahey (D – 133rd District), Jen Van Gorder (R – 79th District), and Tami Zawistowski (R – 61st District) were eligible to receive CEP grants. The Commission also determined that state senate candidates Christine Cohen (D – 12th District), Cecilia Maher (D – 26th District), and Henri Martin (R – 31st District) were eligible to receive CEP grants.

The CEP is a voluntary program that allows qualifying candidates for General Assembly and statewide offices to receive full public financing for their campaigns. To qualify for public campaign financing, candidates must demonstrate that they have substantial support from the public. Candidates for state representative accomplish this by raising $5,800 in contributions from individuals, with at least 150 coming from individuals residing in municipalities in their districts. Candidates for state senate accomplish this by raising $17,300, with at least 300 coming from individuals residing in municipalities in their districts. Participating candidates may only accept small dollar contributions from certain individuals—the maximum contribution is $290—and no contributions from state contractors or PACs. General election grant amounts are up to $33,175 for state representative candidates and up to $112,795 for state senate candidates.

The CEP was designed, in part, to reduce the influence of special interests in state politics while encouraging grassroots support of campaigns. In its fourteenth year of providing public funding to General Assembly candidates, and its twelfth for statewide candidates, the CEP continues to provide a seawall against the rising tide of special interest money in Connecticut elections and a critical, ongoing effort to restore the public’s trust in the institutions of democratic governance.