

STATE OF CONNECTICUT
STATE ELECTIONS ENFORCEMENT COMMISSION

Complaint of Daniel Garrett, Hamden

File No. 2012-154B

FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS

The Complainant filed this complaint pursuant to Connecticut General Statutes § 9-7b. The Complainant alleges that Vera Morrison, Town Clerk of Hamden, Connecticut was aware of or otherwise a witness to certain allegations made by the Complainant against Anthony Esposito, the Republican Registrar of Voters for Hamden, Connecticut. Although the Complainant has named Mrs. Morrison as a respondent, he has not alleged any facts constituting a potential violation by Mrs. Morrison of any of the statutes under the Commission's jurisdiction. For the full resolution of the complaint, see the consent order signed by the Hamden registrars of voters and docketed as SEEC File No. 2012-154A.

ORDER

The following is ordered on the basis of the aforementioned finding:

That the matter be dismissed as to the allegations against Mrs. Morrison.

Adopted this 17th day of April of 2013 at Hartford, Connecticut

Anthony J. Castagno, Chair
By Order of the Commission
