3. General Statutes §9-140b enumerates a limited universe of individuals who may handle an executed absentee ballot on behalf of another. It reads, in pertinent part:

¹ The following are the Commission's findings and conclusions based on those portions of the Complainant's statement of complaint which the Commission could reasonably construe as alleging facts amounting to a specific violation of those laws within the Commission's jurisdiction. Any statements within the Complaint not addressed herein either did not specifically allege a violation or alleged facts which if proven true would not have amounted to a violation within the Commission's jurisdiction.

As used in this section, "immediate family" means a dependent relative who resides in the individual's household or any spouse, child or parent of the individual.

4. The investigation here revealed that Jose Velez, Virginia Velez, and Carmen Cruz did submit absentee ballot applications for the September 10, 2013 special election and the records of the City of Bridgeport reflect that their absentee ballots were cast and counted.
5. The City of Bridgeport records reflect that Nancy Sanchez, a neighbor in their apartment building, checked 49 absentee ballot applications from the Bridgeport Town Clerk, three of which were the ones that were distributed to Mr. Velez, Ms. Velez, and Ms. Cruz.
6. However, the investigation revealed no evidence to indicate that Ms. Sanchez or any other identifiable individual returned to collect the ballot.
7. Moreover, Mr. Velez, Ms. Velez, and Ms. Cruz refused to cooperate in this investigation or even corroborate what the Complainant alleges they told him.
8. Considering the aforesaid, the Commission finds that there is insufficient evidence to pursue this matter further.
9. This matter should be dismissed.
