Respondent Gary Scribner, as treasurer of Democrats for New Milford, failed to file an itemized Campaign Financial Disclosure Statement for the above-referenced committee with the New Britain Town Clerk, which was due on April 10, 2019, as required by General Statutes § 9-608. The Respondent admits to all jurisdictional facts and agrees that this Agreement shall have the same force and effect as a final decision of the Commission.

The Respondent waives: (1) Any further procedural steps; (2) The requirement that the Commission's decision contain a statement of findings of fact and conclusions of law, separately stated; and (3) All rights to seek judicial review or otherwise to challenge or to contest the validity of the Stipulated Settlement.

This notice and settlement offer is strictly limited to the issue of timeliness for the above captioned late filings under § 9-608. It does not extend to any information required in such a filing or the accuracy of such information, and shall not resolve any other potential violations with that section of the statute or any other statute within the Commission's jurisdiction.

Upon the Respondent's agreement to comply with this Stipulated Settlement, the Commission shall not initiate any further proceedings against the Respondents regarding this matter.
